

FIRE IN APPLE TREE.

Odd Sight for Residents of Marcus Avenue, Danbury.

A burning apple tree near a barn at 10 Marcus avenue, Danbury, last night, was a sight for the ages. The tree, which had been cut down, was lying on its side and was burning brightly. The fire was caused by a spark from a gas engine which had been used to cut down the tree. The fire was extinguished by the Danbury fire department.

Secretary of the Interior Garfield has been confined to his residence for several days with a severe attack of the grip. His condition has been marked with high fever, but he is much improved.

Ladies' Auxiliary to St. Joseph's Hospital Organized—Committees Named—Great Enthusiasm and United Effort for Laudable Work.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to St. Joseph's Hospital is the name adopted by the organization formed last week to assist in the work of charity.

At a meeting of the members, who now number about 136, held last Friday, much business of importance was transacted.

Mrs. J. O. Blanchette was elected third vice president and Miss Mary Mullen, financial secretary. Owing to the fact that Rev. Mother Thersilla had expressed a desire that no admission fee be exacted from the members, there was some discussion on this point.

It was finally agreed to test the feeling of the members by ballot and accordingly, by a very large majority it was voted to pay an initiation fee of one dollar each for the new members.

There is great enthusiasm and sincerity of purpose among the auxiliary's members, which bids fair to insure much comfort and relief to future patients of the institution.

Matters have already been referred to the executive committee, and some action will be taken soon relative to these departments.

It is the hope of the ladies that the public will co-operate with them in their undertakings and thus enable them to accomplish the object of their organization.

Six committees were formed, as follows: Delicacy, Mrs. J. A. McDonald, chairman; entertainment, Mrs. J. A. McDonald, chairman; nursing, Mrs. J. A. McDonald, chairman; sewing, Mrs. J. A. McDonald, chairman; social, Mrs. J. A. McDonald, chairman; and, Mrs. J. A. McDonald, chairman.

The committee on by-laws consists of the eight officers, Mrs. Stiles, chairman; press committee, Mrs. J. A. McDonald, chairman; literary committee, Mrs. L. M. Plouffe, chairman.

A large number of resident and non-resident directors, including the officers of the auxiliary, was appointed, with Mrs. D. P. Dunn as chairman.

Franklin G. Phelps Expires From Apoplexy Sunday Morning. Franklin G. Phelps, aged 66, fell dead at 11:15 o'clock Sunday forenoon on the sidewalk in front of the house of his niece, Mrs. William A. Dawson, at 31 South street.

Mr. Phelps was apparently in as good health as ever earlier in the day and had had Alderman Dawson's child out for an airing. He was going toward the house when a neighbor noticed him stagger and fall. A couple of neighbors and Mr. Dawson tried the old gentleman into the house. He was still gasping. The family physician was summoned, but not being able to find him, Dr. F. E. Wilcox was called. He arrived within ten minutes, but Mr. Phelps was dead.

Mr. Phelps was a native of Portland and had followed the shoe trade for many years. He was a member of Mansfield post, G. A. R.

Mr. Phelps was employed for a number of years by the New York & Hartford Transportation Co., and later for several years by the T. G. Scott Wrecking company of New London and then again by the Hartford company.

He was a member of Mansfield post, G. A. R. About four years ago he came to make his home with his niece, Mrs. Dawson, wife of Alderman at large William A. Dawson. No other near relatives survive.

OBITUARY. Albert W. Hillard, aged 80, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John N. Smith, 83 Spring street, at 10 o'clock Sunday morning of diseases incident to age.

Mr. Hillard was a native of North Stonington and had been residing in this city since his wife died six years ago. He came to visit his daughter a week ago today, not feeling very well.

He was a resident of Lebanon for a number of years and for many years was a well-known farmer in North Stonington and was prominent politically there, having been town tax collector for many years, and representing the town in the general assembly a number of times.

Besides his daughter, Mrs. John N. Smith of this city, there survive two brothers and four sisters: Luke Hillard of Boston and Paul H. Hillard of Westerly, R. I.; Mrs. Margaret Slason of Blountville, N. Y.; and Mrs. Edith Howell of North Stonington, Conn. Mr. Hillard was married to Mrs. A. B. Maine of Greenfield.

FUNERAL. Daniel K. Shurtliff. The funeral of Daniel Knowlton Shurtliff was held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Daniel Upton of West Ashford. The funeral was attended by many relatives and friends. Rev. C. Chappell, pastor of the Warrenville Baptist church, was the officiating clergyman. Relatives acted as bearers.

Local visitors in Hartford Saturday included Thomas P. Foley, Mrs. C. L. Boss, Mrs. John Kelly and son, Mrs. O. B. Smith, Mrs. J. P. Smith, Mrs. Z. H. Haywood of Ipswich, N. Y., was a recent visitor in this city and attended the masquerade given by the Aleri hose company Friday evening.
